| 1  | Plaintiff James Porath ("Plaintiff") and defendant Logitech, Inc. ("Logitech")                        |  |  |
|----|---|--|--|
| 2  | (collectively, the "Parties"), by and through their respective counsel of record, hereby agree to     |  |  |
| 3  | and request a Court order referring the parties to a settlement conference before Magistrate Judge    |  |  |
| 4  | Jacqueline Scott Corley for the purpose of pre-class certification settlement discussions. Mindful    |  |  |
| 5  | of the Court's June 13, 2018 Notice and Order re Putative Class Actions and Factors To Be             |  |  |
| 6  | Evaluated For Any Proposed Class Settlement (ECF No. 16), the Parties stipulate and agree as          |  |  |
| 7  | follows:  |  |  |
| 8  | WHEREAS, on May 23, 2018, Plaintiff filed his complaint in this matter (ECF No. 1),                   |  |  |
| 9  | alleging that certain of the advertising of Logitech's Z200 speakers that he relied on in his         |  |  |
| 10 | purchasing decision misled him into believing he was purchasing a speaker set that had two            |  |  |
| 11 | drivers per speaker when, in fact, each speaker had only one driver;                                  |  |  |
| 12 | WHEREAS, on June 13, 2018, the Court issued its June 13, 2018 Notice and Order re                     |  |  |
| 13 | Putative Class Actions and Factors To Be Evaluated For Any Proposed Class Settlement, ECF             |  |  |
| 14 | No. 16 (the "Order");   |  |  |
| 15 | WHEREAS, the Parties have carefully reviewed the Order and confirm their current and                  |  |  |
| 16 | anticipated future compliance with its terms;   |  |  |
| 17 | WHEREAS, on July 19, 2018, Logitech answered the complaint (ECF No. 18);                              |  |  |
| 18 | WHEREAS, on July 23, 2018, Logitech emailed Plaintiff's counsel expressing an interest                |  |  |
| 19 | in resolving the case by making the putative class whole but noting that, pursuant to the Order,      |  |  |
| 20 | the necessary first step would be to obtain leave from this Court to begin any settlement             |  |  |
| 21 | discussions,  |  |  |
| 22 | WHEREAS, the Parties subsequently discussed the steps necessary to obtain an order                    |  |  |
| 23 | from this Court granting the Parties leave to discuss a pre-certification resolution, but, mindful of |  |  |
| 24 | the Order, made certain not to discuss specific settlement terms, attorneys' fees, incentive          |  |  |
| 25 | awards, or anything similar,  |  |  |
| 26 | WHEREAS, the Parties believe that this may be the rare putative class action case that,               |  |  |
| 27 | under the Order, is appropriate for early class resolution because:                                   |  |  |

- For purposes of the proposed settlement negotiations before Magistrate Judge Corley, Logitech agrees to negotiate a settlement on a class basis and will not seek a "discount" based on the potential risk that the putative class is not certified.
- Logitech has confirmed to Plaintiff that it has already begun the process of revising the challenged advertising to address the specific issue experienced by Plaintiff.
- Logitech has further confirmed that it is prepared to negotiate a resolution with Plaintiff and other similarly situated consumers with respect to purchases of the Z200 speakers to make all such consumers whole.
- Logitech has further confirmed that it is prepared to memorialize such resolution in a class settlement, subject to review and approval by the Court;
- The Parties have further confirmed that they are prepared to provide reasonable and appropriate discovery to develop the factual record necessary to negotiate and reach an appropriate resolution.
- Plaintiff's counsel intends to file a motion for appointment of interim lead counsel no later than August 22, 2018.
  - The Parties have agreed to seek a referral to Magistrate Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley for a Magistrate Judge Settlement Conference.

WHEREAS, because Logitech is prepared to proceed immediately to negotiating, on a class basis, a resolution of the issue experienced by Plaintiff and other similarly situated consumers, and to making such consumers whole, the Parties do not believe that continuing to expend resources litigating the matter, or that class certification proceedings, are necessary or an efficient course of action or in the best interest of the putative class; and

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the Parties, subject to approval from the Court, that:

1. The Parties are familiar with and will abide by the Order;

| 1  | 2. Upon the requested refer   | rral, the Parties will convene a settlement conference |  |
